

Symbols: "more than", "less than" and "equal to"

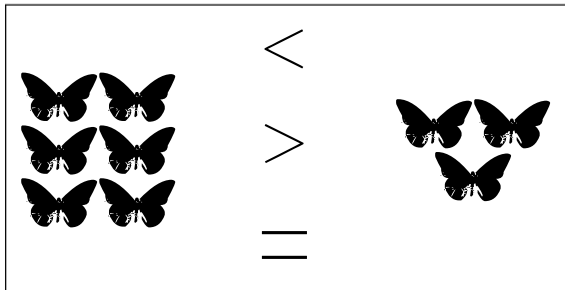

Compare and choose the "more than" or "less than" symbol.

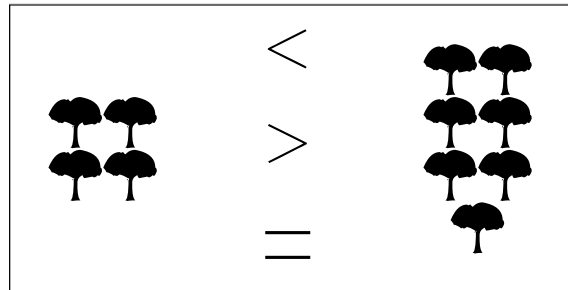

A box containing two groups of cars. The left group has 5 cars (two rows of two, one below). The right group has 5 cars (two rows of two, one below). Between the groups are three symbols: a less-than sign (<), a greater-than sign (>), and an equals sign (=).

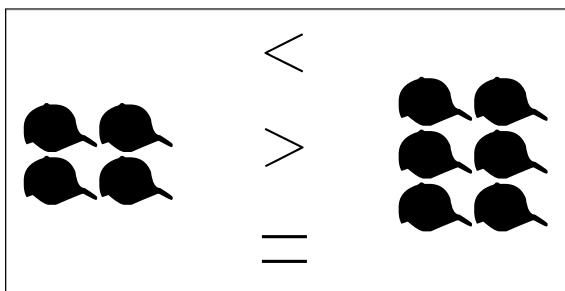

A box containing two groups of buses. The left group has 4 buses (two rows of two). The right group has 2 buses (one row of two). Between the groups are three symbols: a less-than sign (<), a greater-than sign (>), and an equals sign (=).

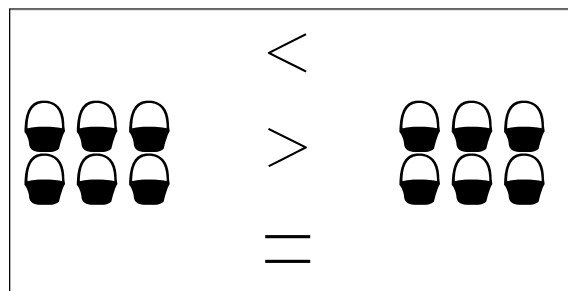

A box containing two groups of butterflies. The left group has 6 butterflies (two rows of three). The right group has 3 butterflies (one row of three). Between the groups are three symbols: a less-than sign (<), a greater-than sign (>), and an equals sign (=).

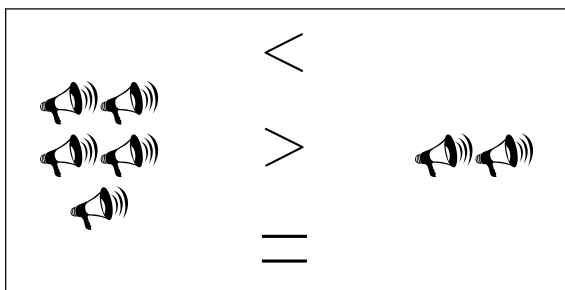

A box containing two groups of trees. The left group has 4 trees (two rows of two). The right group has 7 trees (two rows of three, one below). Between the groups are three symbols: a less-than sign (<), a greater-than sign (>), and an equals sign (=).

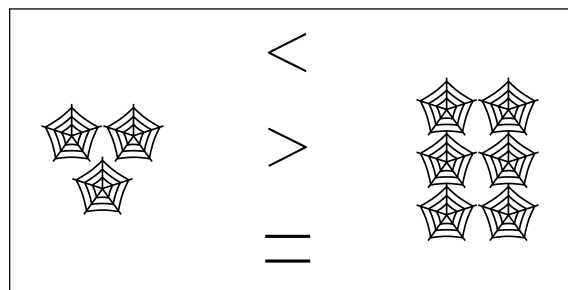

A box containing two groups of leaves. The left group has 4 leaves (two rows of two). The right group has 6 leaves (two rows of three). Between the groups are three symbols: a less-than sign (<), a greater-than sign (>), and an equals sign (=).

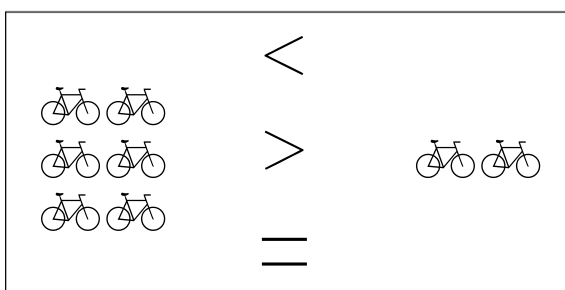

A box containing two groups of baskets. The left group has 6 baskets (two rows of three). The right group has 6 baskets (two rows of three). Between the groups are three symbols: a less-than sign (<), a greater-than sign (>), and an equals sign (=).

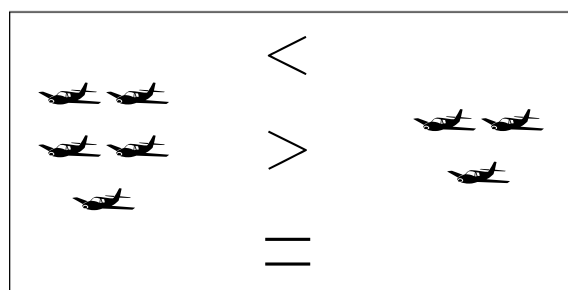

A box containing two groups of megaphones. The left group has 5 megaphones (two rows of two, one below). The right group has 2 megaphones (one row of two). Between the groups are three symbols: a less-than sign (<), a greater-than sign (>), and an equals sign (=).

A box containing two groups of spider webs. The left group has 3 webs (two rows of two, one below). The right group has 6 webs (two rows of three). Between the groups are three symbols: a less-than sign (<), a greater-than sign (>), and an equals sign (=).

A box containing two groups of bicycles. The left group has 9 bicycles (three rows of three). The right group has 2 bicycles (one row of two). Between the groups are three symbols: a less-than sign (<), a greater-than sign (>), and an equals sign (=).

A box containing two groups of birds. The left group has 5 birds (two rows of two, one below). The right group has 3 birds (two rows of two, one below). Between the groups are three symbols: a less-than sign (<), a greater-than sign (>), and an equals sign (=).