

Light rays

Draw the rays of light from the sun to an object to your eye.

Light travels in straight lines. We see objects when light bounces off the objects to our eyes.

