

Slowing natural changes

Strong winds have been breaking a farmer's corn plants. How would you try to protect the field?

During storms a river overflows its banks and floods a city. What are your ideas to solve the problem?

Waves are washing sand away from a beach. How would you try to protect the beach?

A school is near the edge of a desert. Sand is blowing and covering the playground. What are your ideas to solve the problem?
