

Describing landforms

Fill in the blanks.

mountain

ocean

valley

lake

river

hill

plains

A _____ is raised land that is not as high as a mountain.

A big stream of flowing water is called a _____.

A low area between hills or mountains is a _____.

A _____ is a large body of water surrounded by land.

Large areas of flat land are called _____.

A _____ is steep, rocky land that is much higher than the land around it.

A vast body of saltwater is called an _____.