

100 Interrogative Sentences of Future Perfect Continuous Tense

31) Had she been baking a cake since noon?

32) Had we been traveling for days before we reached our destination?

33) Had it been raining heavily all week?

34) Had John been practicing the guitar for months before his performance?

35) Had Sarah been studying Spanish for years before her trip to Spain?

36) Had the construction workers been building the house for months before it was completed?

37) Had I been working on the project all day long?

38) Had you been studying for hours before the exam?

39) Had he been playing soccer since morning?

40) Had we been traveling for hours before reaching the destination?