

Past Perfect Continuous Tense

Write Interrogative Sentences (Key)

1) She had been teaching at the school for ten years before she retired.

Que: Had she been teaching at the school for ten years before she retired?

2) We had been living in the city for a decade before we moved to the countryside.

Que: Had we been living in the city for a decade before we moved to the countryside?

3) They had been practicing their musical instruments for hours every day.

Que: Had they been practicing their musical instruments for hours every day?

4) It had been raining heavily since yesterday evening.

Que: Had it been raining heavily since yesterday evening?

5) John had been working on his novel for months before he finally completed it.

Que: Had John been working on his novel for months before he finally completed it?

6) Sarah had been learning to play the guitar for years before she joined a band.

Que: Had Sarah been learning to play the guitar for years before she joined a band?

7) The children had been playing in the park all afternoon before it started to rain.

Que: Had the children been playing in the park all afternoon before it started to rain?

8) The company had been developing new products for months before launching them in the market.

Que: Had the company been developing new products for months before launching them in the market?

9) I had been working on this project for hours.

Que: Had I been working on this project for hours?

10) You had been studying for the exam all night.

Que: Had you been studying for the exam all night?
