

100 Sentences of Present Perfect Continuous Tense

- 36)    Pos.    We have been traveling around Europe for weeks.
          Neg.    We have not been traveling around Europe for weeks.
          Que.    Have we been traveling around Europe for weeks?
-

- 37)    Pos.    They have been talking on the phone for hours.
          Neg.    They have not been talking on the phone for hours.
          Que.    Have they been talking on the phone for hours?
-

- 38)    Pos.    It has been snowing since early morning.
          Neg.    It has not been snowing since early morning.
          Que.    Has it been snowing since early morning?
-

- 39)    Pos.    Mary has been playing tennis for years.
          Neg.    Mary has not been playing tennis for years.
          Que.    Has Mary been playing tennis for years?
-

- 40)    Pos.    The students have been studying English grammar lately.
          Neg.    The students have not been studying English grammar lately.
          Que.    Have the students been studying English grammar lately?