

Perfect continuous Form of Tense

Write Interrogative Sentences (Key)

1) The children had not been playing in the park all afternoon before it started raining.

Que: Had the children been playing in the park all afternoon before it started raining?

2) Sarah had not been studying Spanish for years before her trip to Spain.

Que: Had Sarah been studying Spanish for years before her trip to Spain?

3) She has not been working on her computer for hours.

Que: Has she been working on her computer for hours?

4) John had not been working on his novel for months before he finally completed it.

Que: Had John been working on his novel for months before he finally completed it?

5) She had not been cooking dinner for the party all evening.

Que: Had she been cooking dinner for the party all evening?

6) You will not have been studying French for six months.

Que: Will you have been studying French for six months?

7) We had not been living in the city for a decade before we moved to the countryside.

Que: Had we been living in the city for a decade before we moved to the countryside?

8) John had not been working on the project for months before it was completed.

Que: Had John been working on the project for months before it was completed?

9) I have not been studying English for two hours.

Que: Have I been studying English for two hours?

10) The children have not been playing outside all afternoon.

Que: Have the children been playing outside all afternoon?
