

Example Positive Sentences of Perfect Continuous Tense

1) Sarah had been cooking dinner for the family for hours.

2) I had been working on the project all day long.

3) John had been studying for the exam for months before he finally passed.

4) I will have been studying English for six months.

5) We have been waiting for our food for a long time.

6) You had been studying for the exam all night.

7) They will have been rehearsing for the play for weeks.

8) She has been painting a picture all day.

9) It had been raining heavily since yesterday evening.

10) He has been playing football since this morning.